

Seeking DEVELOP Ambassadors

- The DEVELOP Ambassador Corps has expanded to include current students, alumni, and active duty service members!
- Who: Ambassadors are enthusiastic, creative former participants who return to their academic institutions as a local point of contact for DEVELOP.
 - The ideal candidate is a responsible, outgoing leader who is passionate about NASA's Applied Sciences Program and DEVELOP.
- What: Ambassadors will plan activities, host events, and represent DEVELOP at various academic institutions.
- When: DEVELOP Ambassadors are semester-long, renewable, volunteer positions.

Seeking DEVELOP Ambassadors

- Must apply to be an Ambassador!
- Ambassadors will be selected based on their interpersonal skills, leadership ability, and creativity. Strong public speaking and networking skills are also very important to your success as an ambassador.
- To be considered for a position as an Ambassador, please complete an application and send to Christine (Christine.L.Stevens@nasa.gov).

Application Process

- The DEVELOP Ambassador application includes:
 - basic demographic information
 - a self-assessment
 - short essay questions regarding qualifications and why the applicant's associated university should have a DEVELOP Ambassador.
 - Phone number or email of at least one personal or professional reference (past Center Lead, professor, etc.)
- Completed applications are submitted to Christine by June 23rd.
- After all applications are received, the provided reference will be contacted to fairly and accurately evaluate each applicant.

Selection Process

- The DEVELOP Communications Team will make the final selection of ambassadors.
- This process will include:
 - Qualifications of individual applicants with the top-down recruiting goals of the DEVELOP National Program.
 - Assessing the potential of each applicant's associated college/university to meet DEVELOP's recruiting goals.
- Applicants will be notified the week of July 3rd and orientation will be set up for the following week

If Selected...

- DEVELOP Ambassadors will:
 - Be provided with DEVELOP brochures and recruiting materials.
 - Participate in a virtual orientation with the DEVELOP Communications Team.
 - Brainstorm/ present initial ideas/ plans for recruiting events.
 - Participate in check-ins with DEVELOP Communications Team during the Summer to:
 - Provide update/status on recruiting efforts
 - Share ideas with other Ambassadors
 - Discuss future plans